Al Jolson's Biggest Dixie Hit of "Sinbad"

"Rock-a-Bye Your Baby with a Dixie Melody"—that's the line that gives this song its title, and that's the place the Solid South stands up and applauds. A Winter Garden hit sweeping North, East and West, as well as South.

Here's "The Daughter of Rosie O'Grady"

—and every bit as sweet as her mother was before her. A song already nationally popular—with just such a dreamy lilt and cadence as made its namesake famous. Sung by Robert Lewis with an orchestral accompaniment in which the violins weave fascinating strains of the old "Rosie" through the dominating melody of the new. On the back, "Bye-and-Bye," a beautiful song of soldier hope.

A2561-75c

Marimbaphone Band Breezes Through "Cotton Pickers' Ball"

A new kind of dance music! Full of dash and sparkle and the wild weird minors of monster marimbas synopating neck and neck. As for the tune—this jazz-classic needs no introduction to dancers.

TOTAL OF 115 DEAD,
OVER 100 INJUREDHorrible Toll of Train Wreck
on N., C. & St. L. Road, Near Nashville.

SOLDIERS AMONG VICTIMS

By the Associated Press.
NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 10.—Latest reports from the morgues and hospitals indicate that fifty white persons and sixty-five negroes were killed and over one hundred injured in the disastrous collision between two fast passenger trains on the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railway near this city yesterday. A number of the injured are expected to die. The track was cleared at 10 o'clock last night. Trains today are running through the piles of wreckage. Among the dead are seven of Uncle Sam's fighting force, Army, Navy and Marines being represented in the death list.

Cause Not Determined.

No official statement has been made as to the cause of the collision between the two fast passenger trains, but the report that train No. 4, from Nashville to New York, was the meeting place at the railroad shops nearer the city is generally accepted by the public. It is stated, however, that the fatal catastrophe, the worst in the history of Nashville as well as the railroad, continues to attract attention here. The annals of the road, heretofore, have been remarkably free from wrecks in which passengers have lost their lives.

Story of Soldier's Heroism.

Stories of incidents of the wreck are today filling the newspapers. A striking one concerns a soldier. There were three soldiers wearing the uniform of Uncle Sam in the wreck. Two made the supreme sacrifice. One escaped unscathed. This soldier was riding in the combination car on No. 4, which was telescoped by a heavy baggage car. When the cars were cut into, jammed up and the rescue crew finally got inside, amid heaps of dead and mangled human forms, there was that soldier, pinned in the wreckage. One started to cut him out immediately. "Friend," said the boy in khaki, "there are other poor devils dying right here beside me, and they need help worse than I do. Get them out first and let me alone. I am all right." He lay there until the full moon and when the last injured man had been removed the workmen cut away the timbers that were pinning him down.

Babe a Mass of Crushed Flesh.

The body of an unidentified baby was found in the wreckage which was simply a mass of crushed and bleeding flesh. A body supposed to be the mother was nearby. A large family Bible, not encased in a traveling bag, was found among the wreckage. It had not received as much as a scratch upon its heavy leather back. Another book, entitled "Readings from the Scriptures," was also found nearby. It, too, was undamaged. Whether the reader of the word of God met his or her death while holding these two books is unknown.

Every energy is being put forth today to alleviate the suffering of the injured and the distress of afflicted relatives. The civilian relief of the Red Cross is especially active.

BOY SCOUTS' $40,000 FUND IS SUBSCRIBED

Final Reports Made by Chairmen of Teams and Divisions
Last Night.

Washington's Boy Scout organization has been successful in its campaign for $40,000 to carry on the work of the local chapter for the current year. Reports submitted by the divisions and team chairmen at a meeting at the Lafayette Hotel last night bring the final total well over the minimum of $40,000 needed. Following are the amounts actually subscribed as reported by the various committees: Division 1, Isaac Gans, $7,218; division 2, H. L. Rust, $8,071; division 3, M. O. Chance, $8,919; division 4, J. K. Plant, $6,897; citizens' committee, John C. Letts, $6,323; departmental committee, C. E. Stewart, $1,000; making a total of $37,608 actually pledged.

The following members of the campaign committee have promised to bring pledges that will carry the amount over the $40,000 mark: Isaac Gans, $1,000; Colin H. Livingstone, $1,000; H. E. P. Macfarland, $500; J. K. Plant, $500.

The following officers of the executive committee were elected by the local council to have charge of scouting activities in the District: Honorary president, C. C. Moore; president, Euston B. Thompson; first vice president, M. O. Chance; second vice president, Isaac Gans; third vice president, George Dwyer; fourth vice president, Myron Whitney; fifth vice president, Henry P. Blair; sixth vice president, Stephen Kramer; treasurer, H. L. Rust; scout commissioner, Orville B. Brown. Other members of the executive committee: J. Leo Kolb, Fred Hogan, Morris Latham, James I. Lee, William Knowles Cooper, Arthur J. May, John C. Letts, J. Clinton Hiett, H. E. P. Macfarland, James T. Lloyd, P. B. Parke and C. A. Hammett. Colin H. When anything that enters into our daily life, such as tablecloth and napkins, becomes so high that it is not advantageous to buy them, what is the common-sense thing to do? It is to buy the next best article—Cotton is the only substitute for flax. Naturally the manufacturers in Scotland and Ireland who have made it a business all their lives to make tablecloths and napkins, do it a little better than any one else. There is a vastly increasing use of the cotton articles, which in these days naturally means, with other causes, rising prices. You can save enough on what we now offer to make it well worth your while to buy now.
